Professional Speaker Series

McPat and Seamus Coyne, owners of multiple businesses in the downtown Willoughby area, visited SOI this week as part of our Professional Speaker Series. Al Difranto, regional Junior Achievement coordinator, helped make this happen. The Coyne Brothers did a great job explaining how they start businesses, the ups and downs of being the boss, and their passion for wanting to help the area where they grew up. A big thanks to all three of these partners of SOI!

SOI Yearbooks

The School of Innovation yearbook is still available for purchase. The deadline is February 20th.
