

Student Uniforms

In order for student to get used to "Dressing for Success" in the business world, the students at the School of Innovation will be wearing "business casual" style uniforms based on the school colors. The school colors are: Navy Blue, Dark Green (Hunter/Forest), and White. No specific brand names are required; when in doubt, stick to simple/classic styles.

Shirts/Sweaters:

- Collared shirts in polo or dress-shirt style
- Sweaters and vests in same colors may be added

Student Uniforms

In order for student to get used to "Dressing for Success" in the business world, the students at the School of Innovation will be wearing "business casual" style uniforms based on the school colors. The school colors are: Navy Blue, Dark Green (Hunter/Forest), and White. No specific brand names are required; when in doubt, stick to simple/classic styles.

Pants/Skirts:

- Uniform/chino-style long pants (all students)
- Uniform/chino-style skirts paired with ankle-length leggings or opaque tights
- Khaki-Tan or Navy colors

Student Uniforms

In order for student to get used to "Dressing for Success" in the business world, the students at the School of Innovation will be wearing "business casual" style uniforms based on the school colors. The school colors are: Navy Blue, Dark Green (Hunter/Forest), and White. No specific brand names are required; when in doubt, stick to simple/classic styles.

Socks/tights:

- Neutral/School Colors that coordinate with the uniform (no neon)

Shoes/belts:

- Sneakers or closed dress shoes (weather boots may be worn with a change of shoes for inside)
- No open toes/back; either flats or low-&-wide heels only
- Neutral colors that coordinate with the uniform (no neon; solid color preferred)

