CHANGES...

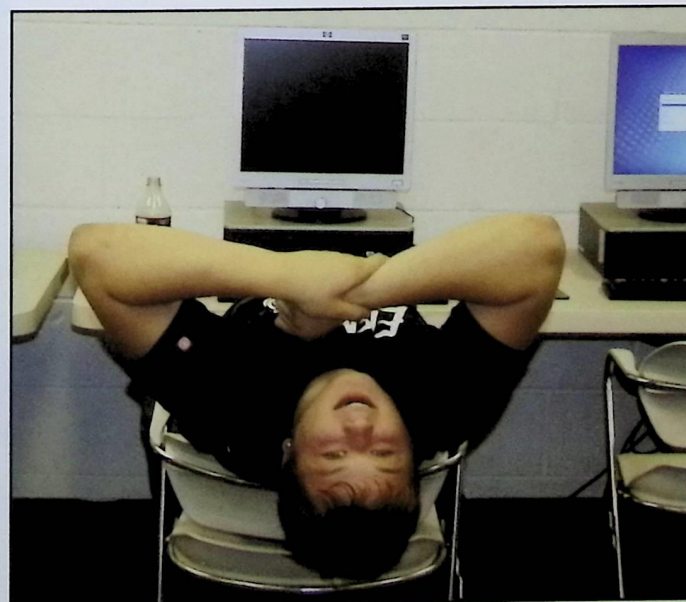

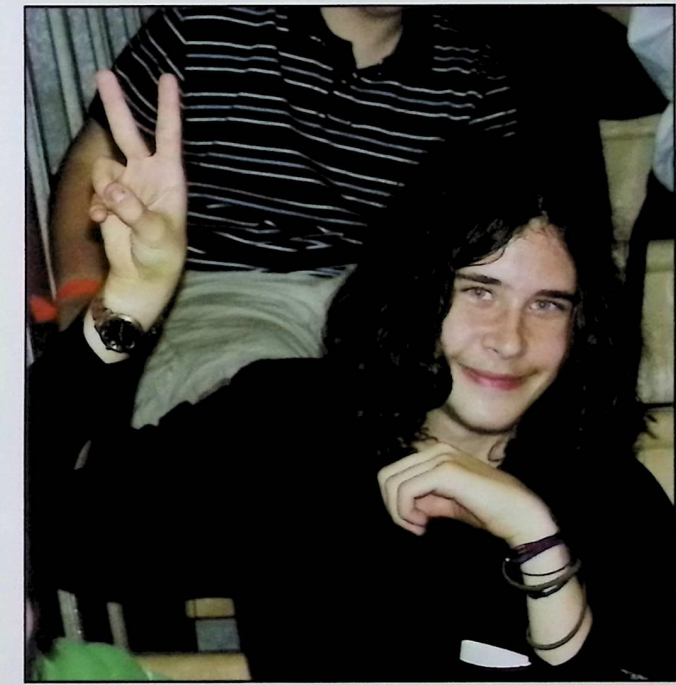

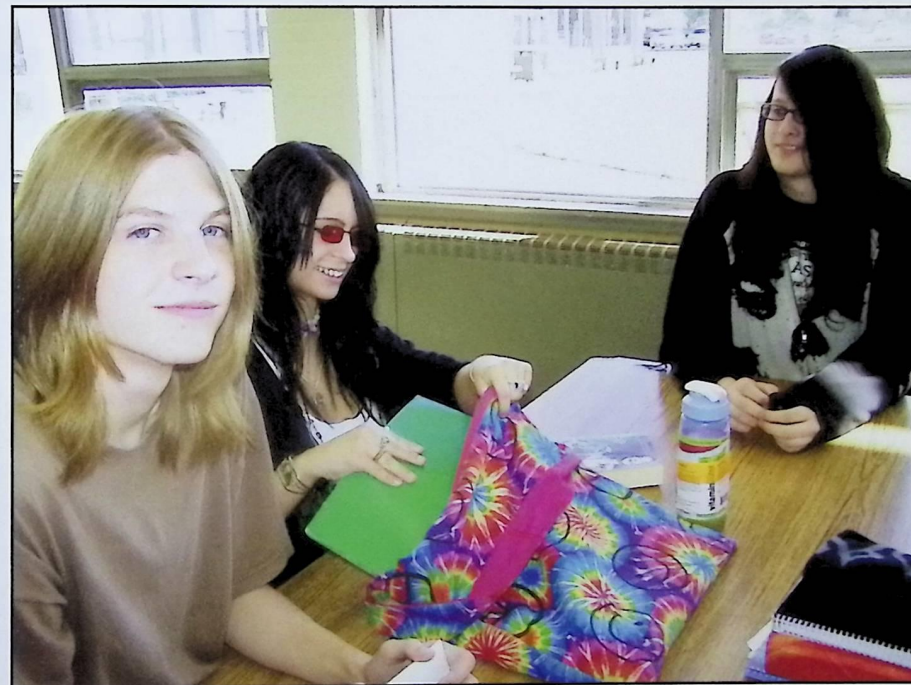

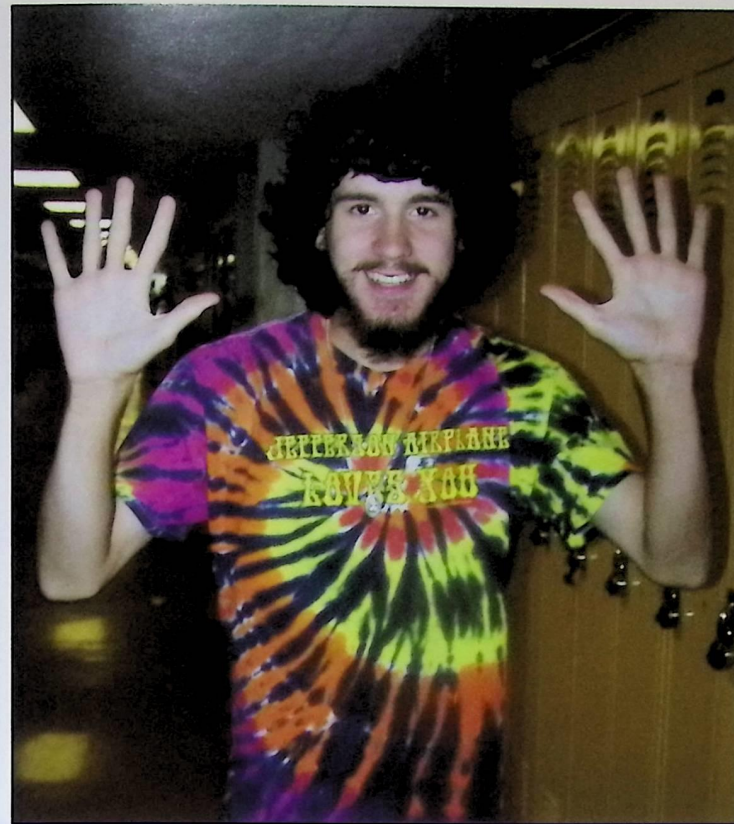

The 2008-09 school year was a time of changes both at North, and for the world around us. Presidential candidates Barack Obama and John McCain ran on platforms of change. New Principal Jennifer Chauby promised changes to the rules and codes here at Eastlake North. Students' lives changed, sometimes immeasurably, from day to day, month to month, and from one school year to the next...

"Striving for excellence today, preparing students for the challenges of tomorrow"

Student Life

Student life at North High is full of excitement, changes and lasting memories. Whether it's a performance by rock band Sing It Loud, after-school social events like dances and performances, or other extracurricular activities, there's always an event for everyone to enjoy.

Spirit Week

Monday, October 6- Friday, October 10

Monday: Army Camo Day

Tuesday: Wild Wild West Day

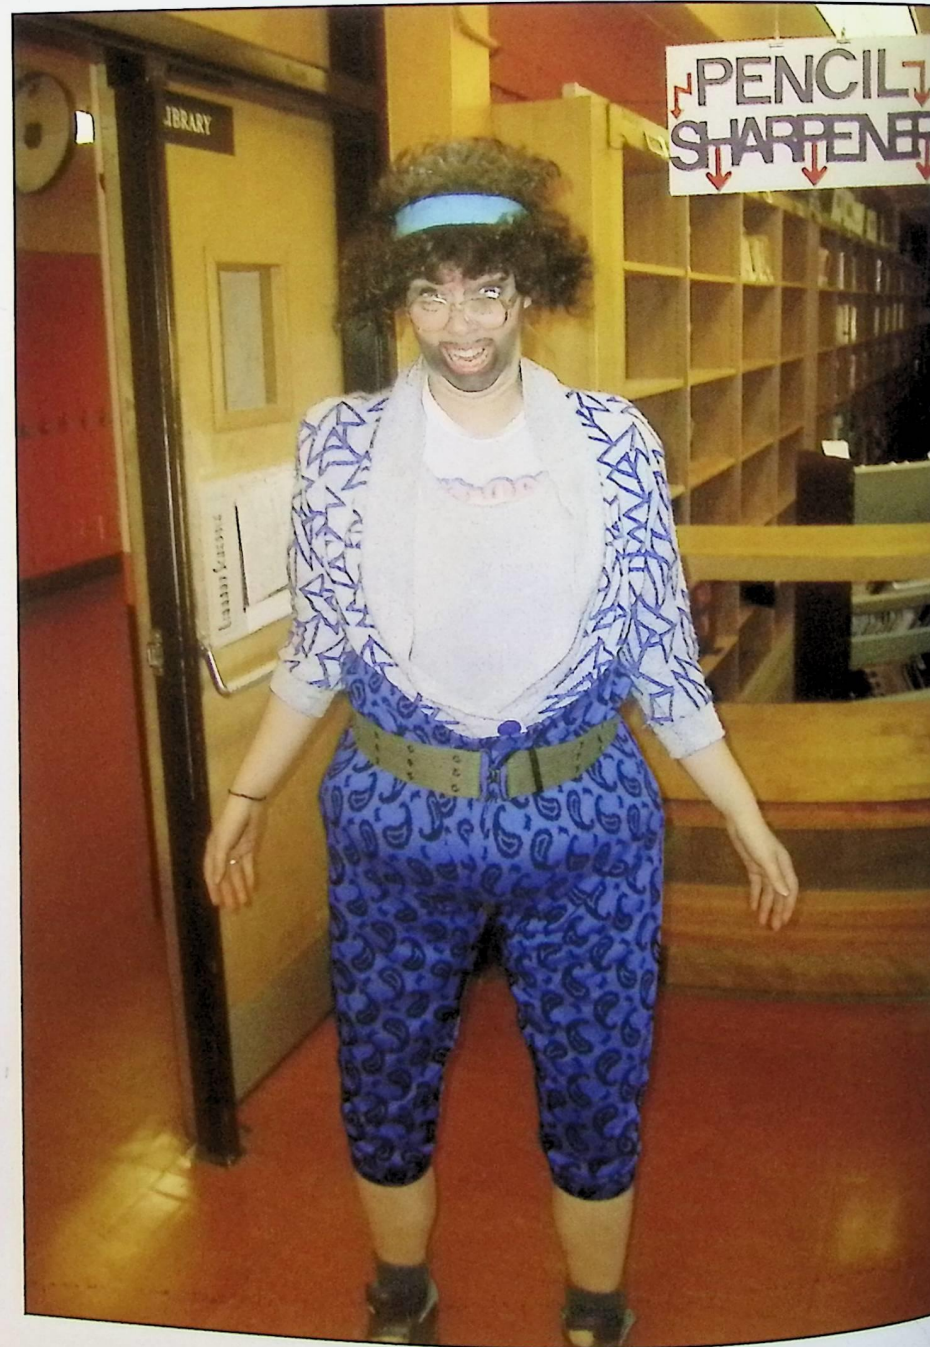

Wednesday: Pirate Day

Thursday: South Nerd Day

Friday: Crazy Orange and Black Day

BOTTOM RIGHT: Tyler Cole, Ms. Chauby and the office staff, and Laura Schuereen along with some other Seniors who ran the halls on Crazy Black and Orange Day.

Go North! Beat South!

North-South Game

Counter-Clockwise from top: The fans get rowdy before the opening kickoff. The team bursts through the banner during introductions. Jonathan Holan gets the fans fired up from the sidelines. Chat Naudom explains the previous play to Mike Vlesz and Shawn Richter.

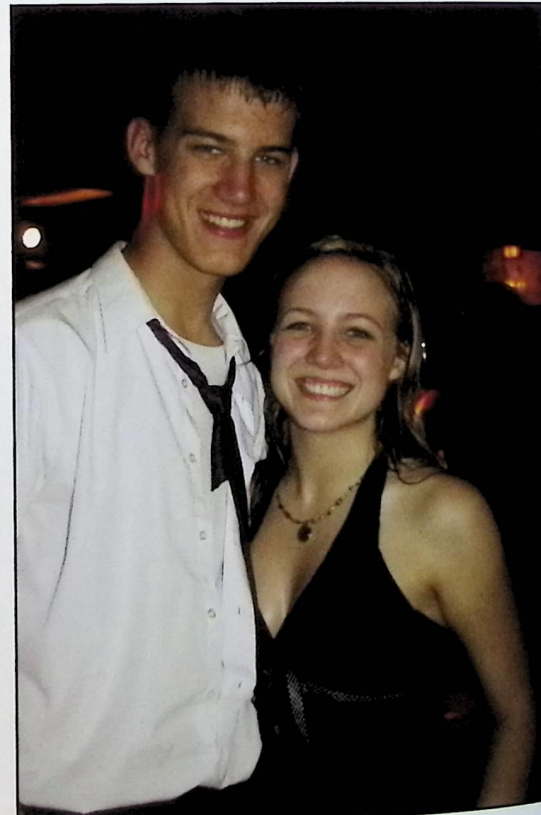

Clockwise from above: Running back John Boothe takes a breather. Ryan Zubal holds the flag on the sideline. Seniors Matthew Roche and Thomas Gay cheer in the stands. Darius Sams studies the defense from the sidelines. North dives into the end zone for six points.

Homecoming

Homecoming 2008 was a night of memories. This years theme, "Remember Tonight..." was an October 11th affair. Students of all grade levels shared a fun-filled evening dancing, socializing and creating an everlasting memory.

Senior Trip Washington, D.C.

Friday, November 14, 2009-Sunday, November 16, 2009

Right: North Seniors listen in on an explanation of the meaning of the John F. Kennedy Eternal Flame at Arlington Cemetery. Below: A group of Seniors gather near the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery.

Drama: Shakesperience

On the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of November, the Drama Club, led by Ms. Zele, put on a "Shakesperience."

The event included both short skits and a full length play, mixing the grace of Shakespeare with the humor of Seuss.

[Top] James Hawkins hosts a very special family feud between the Capitulates and the Monotones
[Bottom] The cast groups and gets ready for the start of the show.

[Top] James Hawkins and Steven Andras point towards the fallen Jack Hunt while Jon Walker and Kayleigh Lascio look on in astonishment

Concert Choir

North High's annual Winter Choir Concert was held in North's gym on Monday, December 15, 2008. All of the groups including Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir, and Northern Lights performed spectacularly. Many of the songs were quite festive for the holidays and many students showed their singing ability through solos and harmonies. Also, to promote the concert and spread a little holiday cheer, the Concert Choir walked through the halls "caroling" directed by Mr. Carney.

JJ Luster and Scotty Feltes singing with the Northern Lights

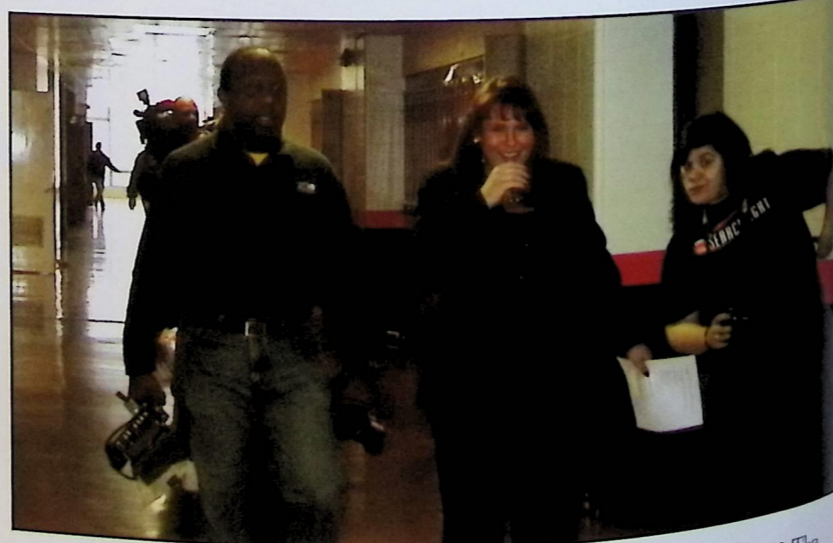

Fatty Swanner, Grace Hackett, Brandon Singsen, Amanda Stewart, Amber Kaszak and other members of the Concert Choir are very cheery while caroling through the hallways of North High

"Cool School"

Freshman Brittany Stuber nominated North for the Fox 8 Cool School of the Week. Students of all grades helped vote and bring home the victory for this unique event. Kenny Crumpton came and interviewed students from Ceramics, AP Biology and Choir. Chick-fil-A also made an appearance, handing out free plush mini cows and vouchers as a congratulations to our success.

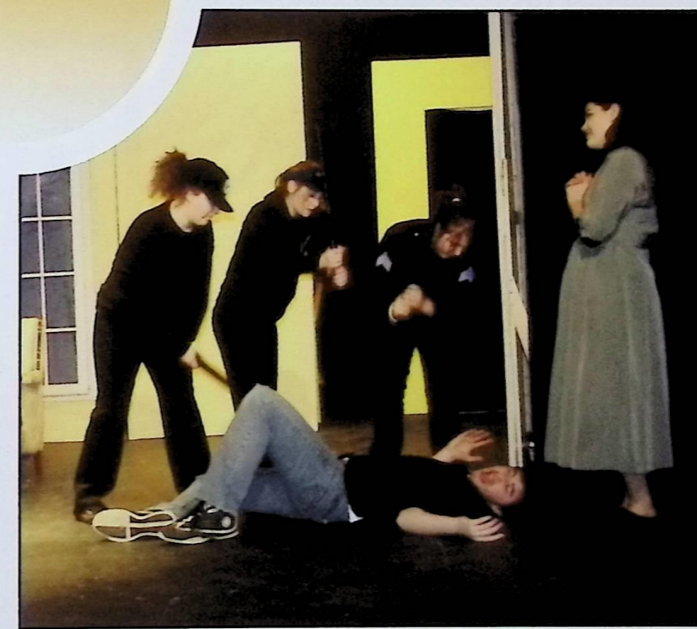

Brittany Stuber is the first to get interviewed by Crumpton in the main hall. A group of students celebrate being the Cool School of the Week with the cows and Mrs. Chauby gets interviewed in her ceramics class by Crumpton.

Kenny Crumpton and Mrs. Chauby smile in front of the creative display welcoming Fox 8 & The Varsity Cheerleaders greet the Chick-fil-A Cows while Stephanie Cassar does a dance with Mrs. Chauby and Mr. Crumpton.

Winter One Acts

Top: Emily Lenin calls around to find her lost necklace as Saundra Smalley looks on.

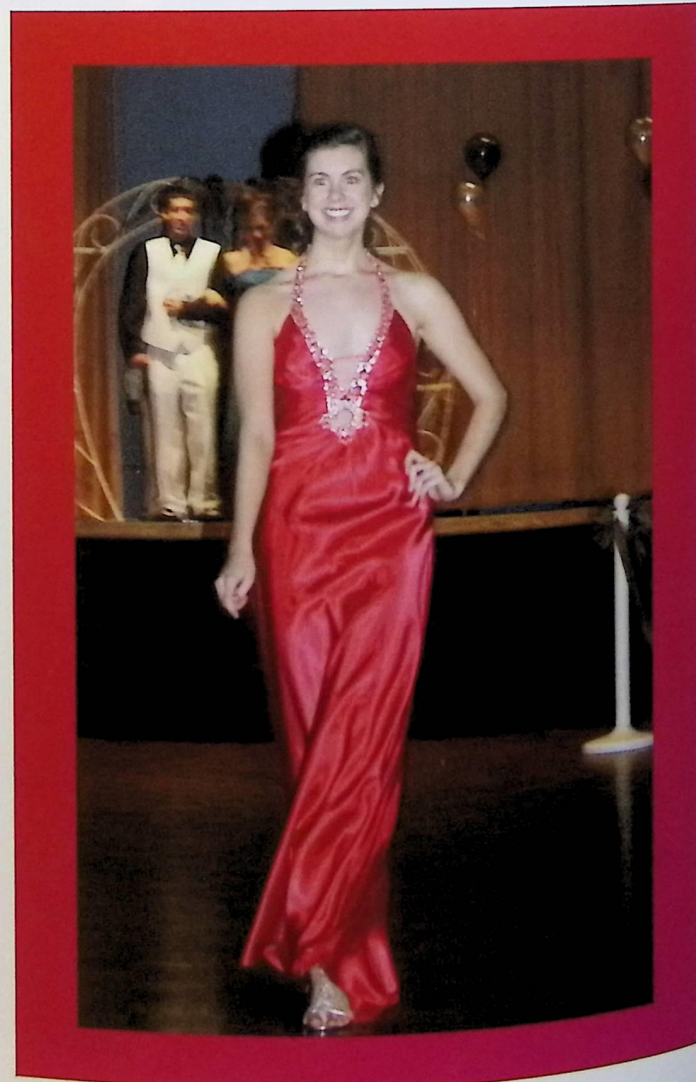

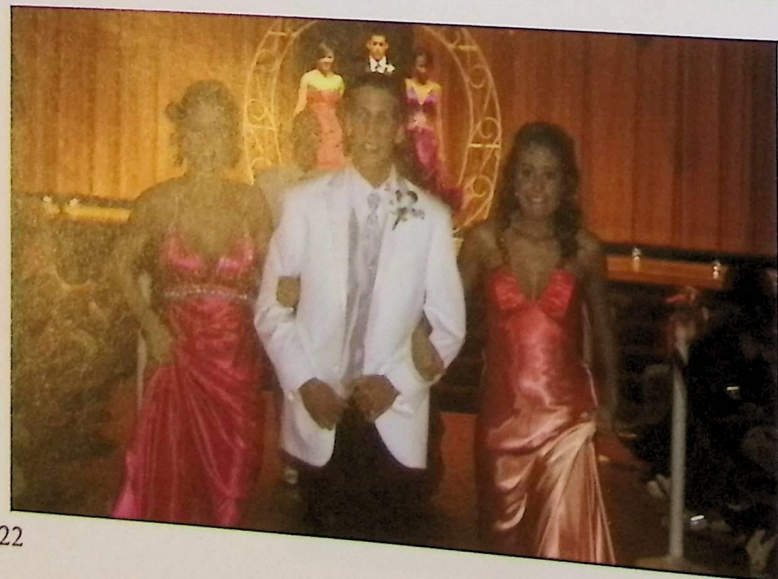

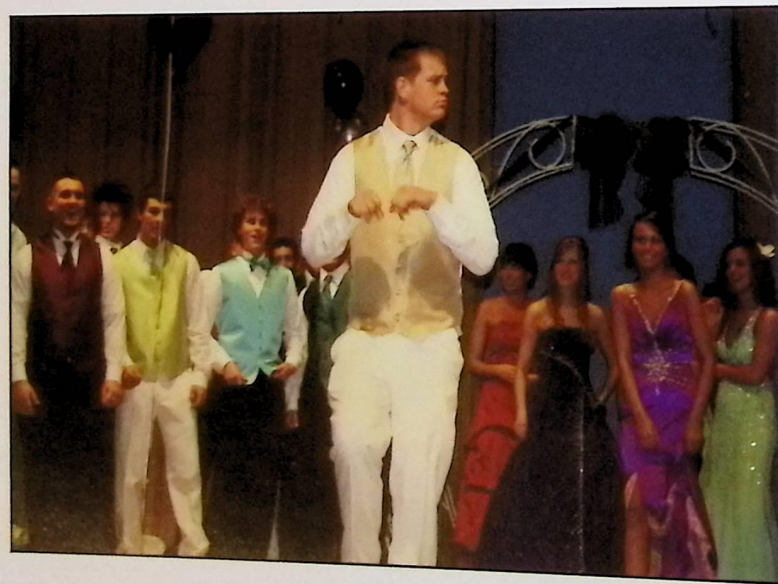

Chris Powalski and Erin Taylor have a little chat before the happy couple goes out for a nice dinner.

Prom Fashion Show

February 11, 2009

The Senior Prom Fashion Show was a complete hit this year, raising an estimated $2,000. Many stylish seniors showcased gowns and tuxedos from various sponsors including David's Bridal and American Commodore. This event was not only a fundraiser, but it turned out to be a fun-filled evening for the participating seniors.

New York Trip

Thursday, February 19, 2009 - Sunday, February 22, 2009

The Freshman class trip to New York City in February was punctuated by visits to Strawberry Fields in Central Park (at right), the United Nations Building (below) and to see the Statue of Liberty (bottom).

Faculty/Student Volleyball

Spring Play

Friday, April 24th - Sunday, April 26th

Ms. Zele and the Drama Club put on their version of Barefoot in the Park, written by Neil Simon. With a small cast the excitement and laughs are at an all-time high for this classic performance.

Come Bratter, played by Amanda Stewart, watches Ethel Banks played by Shelby Belsh learn to pop knichi after Victor Velasco brings it to their home.

Jon Walker, who plays Victor Velasco, offers a reluctant Paul Bratter played by Michael Moyszenko knichi.

Above: Michael Moyszenko bursts in the door of his apartment, exhausted after climbing five flights of stairs. Right: Jon Walker explains to Amanda Stewart that he continues flirting with her to feel young again and build his ego.

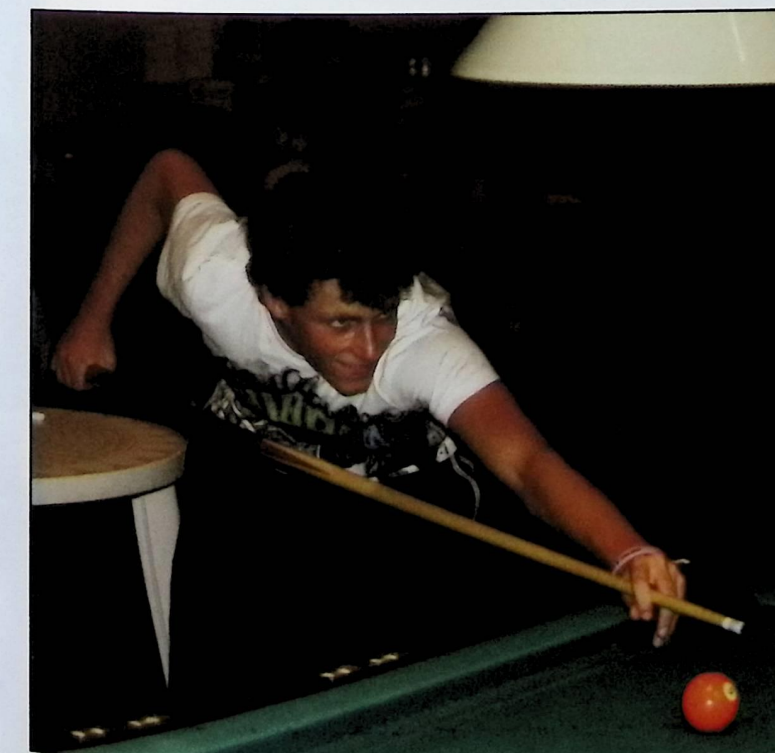

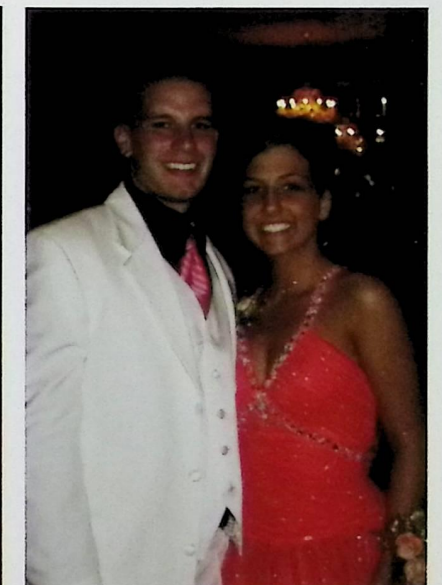

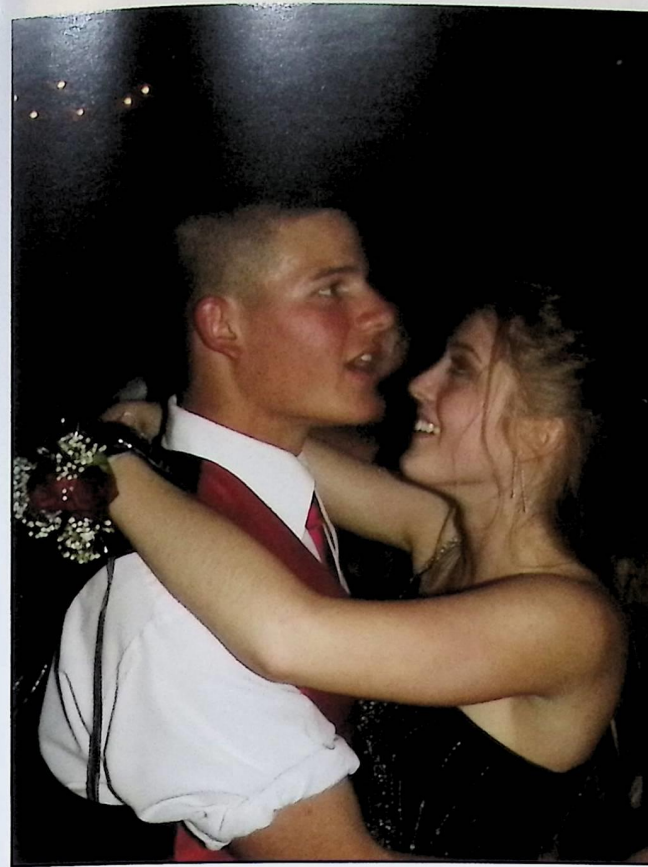

Prom 2009

Friday, May 29th, 2009

This year's Prom was held at LaVera Party Center where students dined and danced the night away. Afterwards, the party moved to Lost Nation Sports Park for an exciting and fun-filled After-Prom.

Commencement

June 7th, 2009

North High's 52nd Commencement for the graduating Class of the 2008-09 school year took place at the State Theater Sunday, June 7th, 2009 at 4:30pm. Superintendent Dr. Keith Miller welcomed the audience, which was treated to performances by the band and Concert Choir. The "Moment of Reflection" speech was given by Senior Class Officer Matt Roche, and the class officially presented by Principal Jennifer Chauby.

North High School congratulates its 2008-09 Retirees:

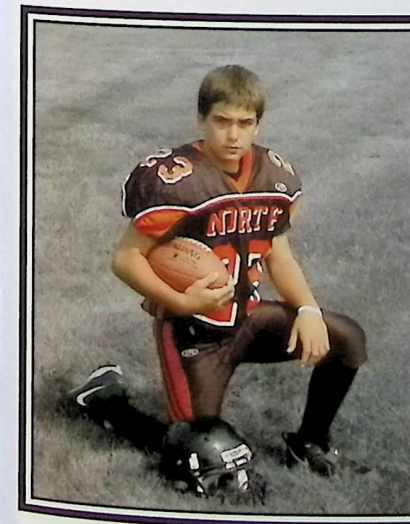

Mr. Henderson, Ms. Newyear and Mr. Miller.

Thank you for all your dedication to North High!

Dedicated to Ms. Pate for her 16 years of tireless and hard work on The Lens:

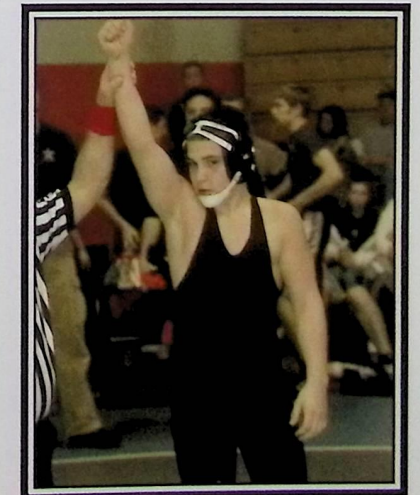

Though it may change in your absence, you will forever stay at the heart of its production. For the forty years of service you gave to the district, and the memories this community will be able to hold and forever cherish because of you, Thank You!

In Memoriam of Tyler Cole

You will be missed.

Dear Christine and Nick,
Time sure does fly by! We are very proud of the young adults the two of you have become. Our entire family felt the blessings of having the two of you born happy, healthy, and strong. The twin bond you have is very special. You have a special friendship that so many wish for. That is a parent's dream. As you move on to the next step in life, we believe that you will continue to make "good choices" and fulfill your dreams. We are so proud of you both. Good luck in college.

Love,

Keep your goals set high!
 Embrace all that life has to offer you!
 Listen to your heart and follow your dreams!
 Stay true to yourself!
 Everytime the road gets tough, be your stubborn self and keep going!
 You will always have our LOVE & SUPPORT!

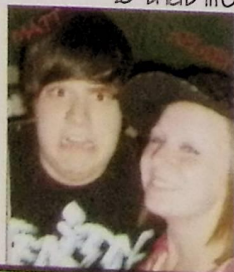

MOMMY,
 I LOVE YOU, MORE THAN...
 THE STARS IN THE SKY!!

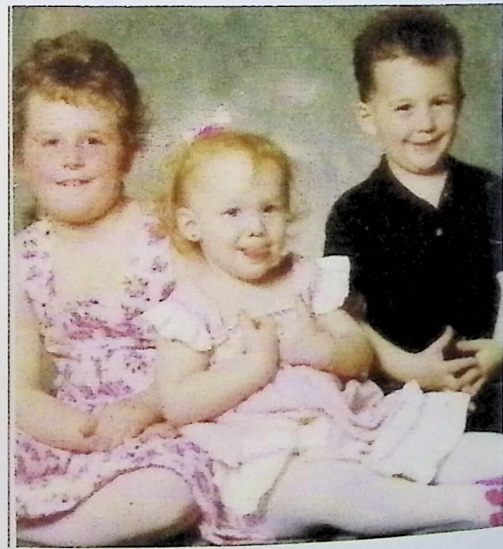

It is so hard to believe that our last baby is graduating!
 It seems like only yesterday we were holding you in our arms.
 You have overcome some big hurdles in your life already and we are very proud of how you have handled them!
 Life is tough! You know that.
 Only you can make good things happen!
 Just put your mind to it and don't ever give up!
 Remember, YOU are in charge of yours and Kera's destiny. SO MAKE IT GOOD!
 WE LOVE YOU!

Alex,

We have been so blessed to have such an extraordinary daughter. You make us proud every day and set a great example for those around you. Know that you will be successful wherever you are and in whatever you do, because of who you are.

Thank you for the fun times, the exciting times, and the loving moments that you have provided for all of us.

Promise yourself to take the time to stop and appreciate where you are, where you have been, and where you have the ability to go.

We love you,
